KPMG Tax Consulting Graduate Vacancies

Overview

We are looking to hire graduates from all degree disciplines to join our firm. We have opportunities in our Tax Department for September 2017 start and we are keen to hear from graduates wishing to join Ireland's leading professional services firm.

We are seeking ambitious, forward thinking, high-achievers seeking continued growth and progression. If you are looking for a challenging career and the opportunity to work on interesting projects with the most successful Irish and international organisations, then a career as a graduate in KPMG can help you achieve your ambition.

About KPMG

KPMG brings together business advisors from many different disciplines – working together to provide our clients with the cutting edge business advice they need for their continued success. Our firm has over 80 partners and more than 2,500 employees in offices in Dublin, Cork, Galway and Belfast. We work with clients in all sectors of Irish business providing a range of services. The cornerstones of our business are quality of advice, quality of service and quality of our people. As the leading business advisory firm, KPMG can offer you the combination of exceptional training, an outstanding list of clients and great colleagues to work with. At KPMG we want you to succeed in developing a career as a successful business adviser in a friendly, challenging and supportive environment and become a business leader of tomorrow.

Graduate opportunities

Every year we recruit approximately 280 graduates to join us as trainees in our offices nationwide. All of our trainees pursue the ACA qualification while training in our Audit, Tax, Consulting, Restructuring, Transaction Services or Corporate Finance practices. Graduates who work in the area of Taxation also pursue the Chartered Tax Qualification.

About KPMG Tax Consulting

In KPMG's Tax practice, our role is to monitor and anticipate changes to tax legislation, in Ireland and abroad, and to respond quickly with advice tailored to our clients' commercial requirements. Our strength and depth in tax is unrivalled. We are the market leader advising clients in the Energy, Telecommunications, Financial Services, Property, Manufacturing, Food and Drink, the Knowledge Economy and the Distribution sectors, as well as having a very large Private Client practice.

Our advice spans many areas, such as:

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Disposals of assets
- International transactions (such as the sale, lease-back and the securitisation of aircraft)
- Maximising tax reliefs on gifts and inheritances
- Tax reporting obligations

At KPMG, tax consulting is not an isolated discipline – it is an integral part of every business. Our professionals need to have a wide range of commercial skills. For this reason, if you join our Tax Consulting practice, your first objective will be to achieve the Chartered Accountants Ireland qualification (ACA). On top of that, you will develop skills in taxation by undertaking the Irish Taxation Institute or the Chartered Tax Consultant examinations.

KPMG Business School

We recognise that on joining us, one of your main objectives will be achieving your first professional qualification. We take our responsibility to ensure that you excel in your professional exams extremely seriously – our exceptional success rate in the ACA exams is testament to this. Our exam pass rate is 10% to 20 better than the national average and we consistently have many of our employees placed in the top ten placing's. We believe that training is about much more than preparing you for your professional exams; it is about preparing you for a career as a professional business advisor, through on-the-job development and relevant formal training programmes.
